

US Capital Global Supports Programs that Help Solve Crucial Social and Environmental Issues in the US and Abroad

Through its California-based foundation, US Capital Global increases its commitment to philanthropic projects and to social and environmental impact investing worldwide.

SAN FRANCISCO, DECEMBER 2019 – San Francisco-based global private financial group US Capital Global announced today that it is increasing its commitment to social and environmental impact investing and to philanthropic projects worldwide over the coming year. In effecting positive global change, the firm works in partnership with innovative, world-class single-family offices, multi-family offices, sovereign and royal families, and their funds, foundations, and portfolio companies.

Over the past twenty years, US Capital Global's Philanthropic Solutions division has been delivering expertise and a comprehensive suite of financing and advisory services to help institutions build and sustain their nonprofit missions. Recently, US Capital Global Securities, the group's FINRA-registered broker-dealer affiliate, announced it was significantly increasing its offering of social and environmental impact investment opportunities for accredited investors.

“At US Capital Global, we are committed to taking the tools of Wall Street and using them to support innovative economic and social development and to build communities in harmony with ancient cultures and the earth,” said Charles Towle, Managing Partner at US Capital Global. “We understand that needs vary, so while we may offer well-managed, innovative nonprofits the financing and advice necessary for their success, we’re also keen to make generous contributions to particular causes close to our hearts, while discovering new opportunities to make difference through our California-based foundation.”
